

"HOWDY," GREETING OF GOVERNOR OF N. J. TO GOVERNOR OF N. Y.

Wilson Meets Executive of Empire State at Syracuse Fair.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The governor of New York, John A. Dix, and the governor of New Jersey, Woodrow Wilson, met at the Syracuse Onondaga Hotel here today, but they met as governors of neighboring States, and not as Democratic Presidential candidates and renominated candidate, respectively.

"Howdy, governor," exclaimed Wilson, with a smile, as he strode rapidly through the crowd of committee men and spectators, with hand outstretched.

"Very well, thank you; how are you?" said Governor Dix, clasping the nominee's hand.

Surrounded by a score of rapidly talking men, the two governors chatted about the weather, the state fair, the crowds, and lots of other pleasant things having no relation to politics. After the meeting Governor Wilson was asked if he had talked New York politics with Governor Dix.

"Oh, no," he said, "not at all." Governor Dix said in reply to the same question:

"It was purely a personal meeting. No politics was discussed. Governor Wilson and I are old friends. I admire him immensely, and merely welcomed him to the fair and to Syracuse. Governor Wilson and I are old friends. I admire him immensely, and merely welcomed him to the fair and to Syracuse."

The day's program provided for speeches by Governor Dix, Lieutenant Governor Conway, of New York, and Governor Wilson, at noon, at the State fair grounds.

Governor Wilson expected to start back to New York at 3 o'clock. He was urged by Governor Dix and the State fair officials to stay over, but said he had to decline.

CONTRIBUTION BOARD UNABLE TO MEET

Senator Pomeroy Will Be Back
When Investigation Is Resumed
September 30.

The expected conference between Senator Clapp and Senator Pomeroy over the campaign contributions investigation, which it was supposed, would be held here this week, will not materialize. Senator Clapp was notified today that Senator Pomeroy had left for Ohio, following the Maine campaign.

Senator Pomeroy was unable to come here at the particular time when it was convenient for Senator Clapp, and owing to this fact and some confusion in exchange of telegraph messages, the meeting was not held.

Senator Clapp is advised Senator Pomeroy will be on hand when the committee begins its hearings, September 30.

Senator Clapp was at the meeting of the Delaware Progressive State convention yesterday. He spoke to the delegates and aroused much enthusiasm.

Republican Electors Pledged to Roosevelt

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Sept. 12.—That eight of the eighteen Presidential electors, nominated by the Republican State convention at St. Louis, April 25, have signed an agreement practically pledging themselves to support Roosevelt, developed at the meeting here of the Republican State committee. H. R. Knott, of Kansas City, originated the movement.

At the committee's meeting, today, the agreement, which is expected to be presented in the shape of a resolution, will be considered at a joint session between the committee and the State candidates.

Chief interest in the Democratic convention centers in the "home rule" plank to be presented by former Gov. Joseph W. Folk and approved by Elliott W. Major, Democratic nominee for governor.

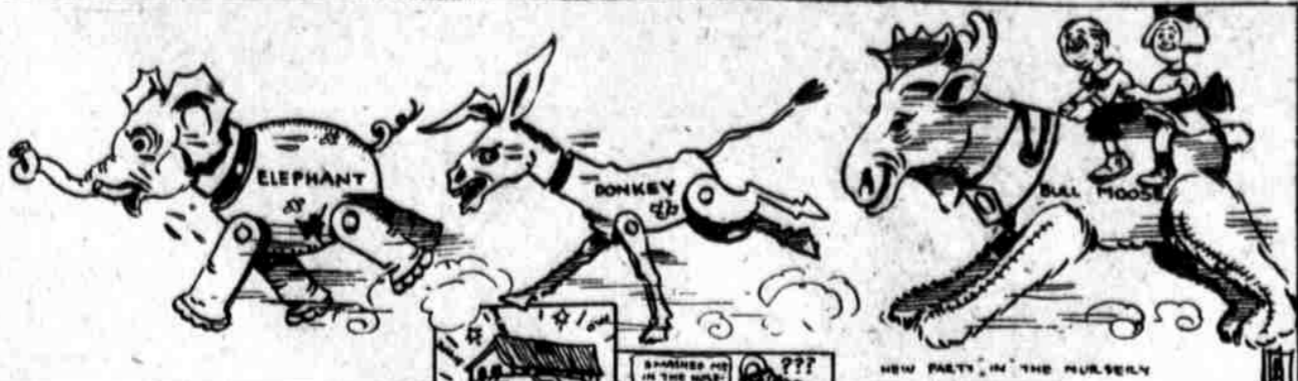

The plank promises local self-government for the cities in the matter of the appointment of police boards, excise officers, and election boards, with the power of removal by the governor of derelict officials.

Itching relieved at

June 12, 1912—"I got an itching sore on my hand which I was told was eczema. It itched worse at night, sometimes waking me out of a sound sleep. After scratching it, of course it burned and pained terribly, but it was impossible not to scratch or rub it. It troubled me four months, and I tried different salves and washes, but without success. A friend told me of Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. They relieved the itching as soon as I applied them, and I was cured in three weeks."

Trial free: (50c) and Resinol Soap (25c) are ideal household remedies for skin and scalp troubles, burns, wounds, sores, boils, pimples and piles. Your druggist sells them, but for free samples of each, write Dept. 4-A, Resinol Chem. Co., Baltimore, Md.

HEADQUARTERS ARE OPENED HERE FOR PROGRESSIVE FIGHT

Committeeman Hogan Returns From Conference With New York Leaders.

Headquarters of the Progressive party in Washington were formally opened last night on the ninth floor of the Evans building following the return of Washington National Committeeman Frank Hogan, who had been in New York for ten days in conference with Roosevelt leaders there.

Mr. Hogan made an address to the Progressives gathered at headquarters last night, in which he spoke of the hopeful and enthusiastic attitude of the leaders in New York, and the satisfaction he had expressed at the manner in which the campaign was being carried on in the National Capital.

He also stated that he was in communication with Colonel Roosevelt, and that he would shortly be able to announce whether a mass reception would be held for the Progressive nominees when he comes to Washington next month.

The District central committee met at 505 E street during the evening and proceeded to headquarters in a body. When the party arrived local headquarters was formally turned over to them. The committee comprises Joseph Sardo, chairman; W. A. Hickey, secretary and treasurer; Col. R. Clarke, chairman of financial committee; H. C. Collier, Elmer Carroll, Noel Martin, Louis N. Bernstein, Henry V. Plummer, C. A. Evans, W. A. J. Morton, W. H. Nelson, W. W. Rollins, W. P. Morton, S. C. Richmond, Farvis Moulden, George S. Collins, Dr. J. A. Wilder, Andrew Gleason, A. F. McCabe, F. H. Cottler, Col. E. H. Palmer, David Wolf, and Albert Platter.

Literature and campaign buttons will be shipped from New York today and distribution of them will begin as soon as the boxes arrive and are opened. Progressives and others who want literature, portraits, buttons or any other item of the usual campaign impedimenta can obtain it at the Evans building.

During the meeting last night A. S. Woodard, of the Eighth Virginia district, made a speech in which he said that Progressives were rapidly extending their forces and influence through the Virginia area joining the District. Washington Progressives were invited to attend the meeting to be held September 18 at Alexandria, at which nominations will be made for a Presidential elector and a member of Congress. J. F. Rollins invited the committee to attend the rally to be held at West Pleasant Md., early in October. The committee will accept all such invitations, and will be represented at all of the future meetings held in the territory adjoining Washington.

TEDDY BULL MOOSE LATEST PLAYTHING

New Toy Arrival Has Body of Teddy Bear, But Head of Moose,
With Big Antlers.

The newest thing in children's playthings is the Teddy bull moose, which has been introduced in Washington by S. Kamm, Sons & Co. The body of the toy animal is that of the Teddy bear, covered with light tan fur, while the head is that of a moose, bearing heavy antlers. The legs may be moved so that the Teddy bull moose can be placed in all the attitudes which children devised with the familiar Teddy bear.

Around the neck of the new toy is a Russia leather collar which serves to bridge the merging of the body of the bear and the head of the moose. As both the moose and bear have abbreviated tails no difficulty was found in modeling this part of the toy.

DEMOCRATS OPEN OFFICE IN CAPITAL

John F. Costello Takes Charge of
Headquarters in Riggs Building.

Democratic headquarters have been opened in the Riggs building by John F. Costello, national committeeman. A speakers' bureau and a bureau of information will be maintained. The immediate business of the organization will be to raise funds, provide speakers in nearby States, and look after those Democrats in the District whose presence at home on or about election would aid Wilson and Marshall.

In opening headquarters Mr. Costello, who has just returned from New York, gave a general welcome to all factions of Democrats, inviting the Kelley, the Newman and the Carr-Darr-Benton Democrats to join hands in harmonious party spirit.

Mr. Costello says that National Committeeman J. Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, is sanguine that the State can be carried for Wilson and that New York Democrats are sure of victory, but are leaving no stone unturned to make victory more certain.

Hyattsville Invites Democratic Leaders

The newly appointed Wilson-Marshall-Smith Club, of the Hyattsville district, held its first meeting in Heptasoph Hall last night and directed the secretary to invite the three candidates to include Hyattsville in their itinerary. Another meeting will be held at the home of Dr. Joseph A. Mudd, September 16.

The officers of the committee are William P. Magruder, chairman; Dr. Guy W. Lathrop, vice chairman; John F. Hickey, secretary; C. E. M. Chapman, assistant secretary, and Thomas H. Garrison, sergeant-at-arms. Other members of the committee are Milton Smith, J. F. Lillard, George M. MacFarland, and James R. Riley.

ROOSEVELT GOES STRENUOUS PAGE OUT IN OREGON

Colonel Compelled to Call
Halt on Five-Minute Speeches.

his speeches must, of necessity, touch similar topics, the earnestness of Colonel Roosevelt is such that those traveling with him note the freshness of each appeal, and no one tires of hearing him day after day.

The Portland program outlined for the colonel yesterday was so strenuous that even he had to call a halt. The local reception committee had planned a number of five-minute speeches in various parks of the city. Mr. Roosevelt agreed to ride by and say a word of greeting to each crowd, but he refused to make any speaking.

"I have nearly sixty days more of this," he told National Committeeman W. H. Coe, "and five-minute speeches will tire me out. They are satisfactory neither to me nor the audience, and I must save my voice."

As the colonel leaves the Oregon boundary this evening, it is once more patent that he has traversed a State where the race is between Roosevelt and Wilson, with Taft running for show. While the lumbering interest is said to be supporting the President, partly because of the Roosevelt conservation theories and Gifford Pinchot's advocacy of the colonel's cause,

Bold Thief Robs Robey Residence

Taking advantage of the storm last evening, a bold thief entered the home of Mrs. N. L. Robey, 708 Massachusetts avenue northeast, while members of the family were sitting in the basement, and ransacking rooms on the second floor, obtained jewelry valued at $250. The thief entered the house by the front door, which was unlocked.

The almost continuous peals of thunder for half an hour last evening made it easy for the thief to work without being detected. Two hours later when Mrs. Robey and her daughter, Miss Nellie Robey, went upstairs, they discovered the robbery.

The police believe the theft was committed by the same person who on Tuesday stole $300 worth of jewelry from the home of Charles W. Ray, 1311 Madison street northwest.

GIRLS! GIRLS! SURELY TRY THIS! DOUBLES BEAUTY OF YOUR HAIR

All you need is a 25 cent bottle of "Danderine"—Hair gets lustrous, fluffy, and abundant at once.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

A delightful surprise awaits, particularly those who have been careless, whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies, invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use of Danderine, when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.
